

We love XM and everything that they provide for us in our service. I was taught in all of my business courses that in order to be a good firm, it must innovate, be competitive, and have good P.R. XM is innovative, Sirius satellite has been introduced as competition, and I think that it is a good company. You all have done enough this year with the fines and what not with Janet, don't take another one of our freedoms away!